There should be nothing ordinary, when everything can be extraordinary
... this is the difference of Spectacular Living

Pied-a-Terre: In French, Pied-a-Terre means "a foot on the ground." The term originally described a ground level second home apartment in the city where a business person could stay occasionally rather than going home to the suburbs every night. A foot on the ground at the water's edge in beautiful downtown Portland.

Welcome to Portland's Premier Waterfront Living

Where nothing should be ordinary, when everything can be extraordinary . . . the difference of Spectacular Living

Welcome to Spectacular Living – the premier place to stay when working, visiting, or vacationing in uniquely beautiful Portland, Oregon. Whether business, pleasure, or relocation brings you to our beautiful city, our luxuriously appointed condos provide unparalleled comfort at the end of your long day.

We have hand selected and designed each of our condos to offer you an unbeatable combination: a rejuvenating experience of nature and immediate access to the urban adventure – all at the same time.

The product of personal revelation: each of our centrally-located condos has its own front door, room to spread out in comfort, and spectacular views from your gourmet kitchen, luxury living area, sleep specialized bed, and waterfront balcony. Let us spoil you with the perfect stay!

From Ordinary to Extraordinary...

Our condos are the perfect alternative to cramped and generically furnished hotels, long anonymous hallways and sealed windows that look onto a brick wall. Travel and relocation don't have to be tiresome, they can be luxurious.
